

PRIVACY

EFFECTIVE DATE: 17 August 2020

The privacy of your personal information is important to us at Raytheon Professional Services ("RPS"). This Privacy Notice describes the personal information that we collect from you, or that you provide, and how we use it, when you:

- visit or use any of our websites or systems;
- apply for an apprenticeship vacancy
- take benefit of our vocational, educational or training services (together the "Services"); or
- communicate with us.

It is important that you read this Privacy Notice carefully together with any other privacy notice(s) or fair processing notice(s) we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This privacy notice supplements the other notices and is not intended to override them.

We may update this Privacy Notice from time to time as our services and privacy practices change, or as required by law. The effective date of our Privacy Notice is stated above. Please just visit <https://www.hondaapprenticeships.co.uk/files/RPS-Privacy-Notice.pdf> if you want to stay up to date, as we will post any changes there.

- Request erasure (right to be forgotten): of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- Object to the processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground.
- Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party
- Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Withdraw the consent you have given at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of the processing prior to your withdrawal of consent. If you withdraw your consent we may not be able to provide certain services to you or you may not be able to receive government support. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.
- Make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues (www.ico.org.uk). We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO so please [Contact us] in the first instance.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us.

NO FEE USUALLY REQUIRED

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee for the administrative costs if your request is manifestly unfounded or excessive. We may also charge a reasonable fee if you request further copies of your data following a request. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

WHAT WE MAY NEED FROM YOU

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

TIME LIMIT TO RESPOND

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.
